UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL EXAMINATIONS

International General Certificate of Secondary Education

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2009 question paper for the guidance of teachers

0500 FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH

0500/31

Paper 31 (Directed Writing and Composition), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

• CIE will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

CIE is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2009 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

Section 1: Directed Writing

Note: All examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidate scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

Question 1

This question tests Writing Objectives W1–W5:

- articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined
- order and present facts, ideas and opinions
- understand and use a range of appropriate vocabulary
- use language and register appropriate to audience and context
- make accurate and effective use of paragraphs, grammatical structures, sentences, punctuation and spelling.

AND aspects of Reading Objectives R1–R3:

- understand and collate explicit meanings
- understand, explain and collate implicit meanings and attitudes
- select, analyse and evaluate what is relevant to specific purposes.
- 1 You are the editor of a local weekly newspaper.

A national charity is planning to open a residential home for troubled teenagers in your area. You have viewed the homepage of the organisation that is opening the centre and one of your colleagues has also conducted interviews with a range of local people.

Some local people have objected to the residential home and some of their opinions are given below.

Write an editorial, in which you:

- Argue strongly in favour of opening the residential home
- Persuade your readers that their fears are mistaken and their objections are groundless

Base your writing on the ideas found in the web-page material opposite, and on the objections given below.

You may include additional details to make the article more authentic but these must be related to the reading material provided.

You should write between 1½ and 2 sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer and up to 15 marks for the quality of your writing. [25]

General notes on likely content

Mark the editorial according to links with the objections and web-page material. Mark A–C in the margin (as below) and simply tick wherever details from the passage are used as evidence.

This will give you a checklist of how much candidates have used the material from the passage. You can then make a qualitative judgement according to the band descriptors to reach your final mark out of ten, balancing quantity with quality.

Who is setting up the home?

HHTN

Employs 45 specialists

Local businesses/school/supermarket involved

Why is the home being set up?

To get children off the streets

To provide health care to homeless children

To offer education to homeless children

To try to integrate homeless into the community

To make the local community more aware of the issues

How objections can be tackled

Increased crime:

May actually bring the unruly element/crime/drug abuse/mental illness off the streets

Groups of unruly youths:

Should be fewer due to street patrols and some teenagers will be in the shelter for classes etc.

No benefits to community:

May improve the area with new facilities such as adventure playground/community projects manned by teens

Not necessary in this area: will make local adults/children more aware of the issues, e.g. bullying, family disputes etc.

Other plus points:

Will provide work for local students/teachers/medics/shops

May provide workers for local businesses.

Method of marking

Mark the following in the margin:

A: Why it is needed

B: What it provides for the teenagers

Note: The best candidates will answer C with information from B (This is a discriminator).

Evaluation: where candidates explain the benefits to the community or use the passage to answer C.

Flexibility: Do not demand that all candidates know what an Editorial looks like, but do expect an element of formality, especially when arguing a case.

Do not expect candidates to use all the detail, but those who are aware of how much is in the left hand column of the right hand page AND use the right hand column as well have read the passage in detail.

The question is marked out of 15 for Writing and 10 for Reading.

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Writing.

| Band 1 | 13–15 | Excellent, consistent sense of audience; persuasive/authoritative style; very fit for purpose. Fluent, varied sentences/wide range of vocabulary. Strong sense of structure, paragraphing and sequence. Virtually no error.                                   |
|--------|-------|---|
| Band 2 | 10–12 | Sense of audience mostly secure; quite stylish and fluent; sense of overall structure; arguments occasionally well developed. Writing is mainly accurate, sentences and language generally effective in places. Occasional error.                             |
| Band 3 | 8–9   | Occasional sense of audience; mostly written in accurate, if fairly straightforward sentences; some argument, though not strong; mostly quite well structured. Errors minor; language straightforward but effective.  |
| Band 4 | 5–7   | Appropriate if sometimes inconsistent style; sentences mainly accurate; fact rather than argument; basic structure: has beginning, middle and end; fairly frequent (minor) errors; perhaps including sentence separation; sentences and/or vocabulary simple. |
| Band 5 | 3–4   | Functional expression; largely factual with little/no argument; has a beginning, but main part of article not always well sequenced; some serious errors in grammar/punctuation/use of vocabulary. Errors slightly intrusive.                                 |
| Band 6 | 1–2   | Language and style not clear; some blurring and lack of order; despite some serious errors, can mainly be followed. Simple sentences.   |
| Band 7 | 0     | Serious inaccuracies and problems with language and grammar are too intrusive to gain a mark in Band 6.   |

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

| Band 1 | 9–10 | Makes a thorough, perceptive, convincing evaluation; creates a persuasive case. Reads effectively between the lines. Develops the reading material and integrates it into the argument/response to the task. |
|--------|------|--|
| Band 2 | 7–8  | Some evidence of evaluation and a relevant case, using reading material to support the argument. Occasionally effective development of some of the ideas in the material.                             |
| Band 3 | 5–6  | A number of points are quoted to make a satisfactory argument. The response covers the material satisfactorily, but may miss opportunities to develop it relevantly or at length.                     |
| Band 4 | 3–4  | Selects points from the material rather literally and/or uses the material thinly. Does not combine points into a connected piece.  |
| Band 5 | 1–2  | Parts of the answer are relevant, though material may be repeated injudiciously or wrongly used.   |
| Band 6 | 0    | Answer does not relate to question and/or too much unselective copying directly from the material to gain a mark in Band 5.  |

Section 2: Composition

Questions 2 (a), 2 (b), 3 (a), 3 (b), 4 (a) and 4 (b)

Give two marks:

- the first mark is out of 13 for content and structure: see Table A
- the second mark is out of 12 for style and accuracy: see Table B.

Remember that these marks will not necessarily match and one mark may well be (much) higher than the other.

The maximum overall mark for the Composition is 25. Write the total clearly at the end as follows: e.g. C7 + S10 = 17 (C standing for 'Content', S standing for 'Style').

It is important that marking is not 'bunched': do not be reticent about awarding marks in the top and bottom bands.

This question tests Writing Objectives W1–W5:

- articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined
- order and present facts, ideas and opinions
- understand and use a range of appropriate vocabulary
- use language and register appropriate to audience and context
- make accurate and effective use of paragraphs, grammatical structures, sentences, punctuation and spelling.

Argumentative/discursive writing

- 2 (a) 'Television is a dangerous influence on teenage behaviour.' Do you agree? [25]
- 2 (b) Should young people have more influence on what happens in their lives? How does your country treat its young people? [25]

Descriptive writing

- 3 (a) Describe the features of the landscape or town which would form the setting for your ideal interactive computer game. [25]
- 3 (b) A 'Reality' TV show is looking for families to take part in a new series called 'Meet My Family' and you want to take part. Only four members of your family can be chosen. Describe these family members to the TV production team, making each person sound interesting to the viewers. [25]

Narrative writing

- 4 (a) 'Forgiveness'. Write a story in which forgiveness plays a central part. [25]
- 4 (b) Write a story, or part of a story, in which a character discovers something vitally important that people need to know about, but nobody will listen. [25]

There may be occasional repetition, and opportunities for development or the provision of detail may be missed. Sentences are often well sequenced.</li> </ul>  | <ul> <li>The writing develops some interesting features, but not consistently so.         Expect the use of detail and some attention to character or setting.     </li> <li>Writing is orderly and the beginning and ending (where required) are satisfactorily managed. The reader is well aware of the climax even if it is not fully effective. Sequencing of sentences provides clarity and engages the reader in events or atmosphere.</li> </ul> |
| Band 37–8   | <ul> <li>There is a series of relevant points and a clear attempt is made to develop some of them. These points are relevant, straightforward and logical/coherent.</li> <li>Repetition is avoided, but the order of the stages in the overall argument can be changed without adverse effect. The sequence of the sentences within paragraphs is satisfactory, but the linking of ideas may be insecure.</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>There is a selection of relevant ideas, images, and details, which satisfactorily address the task. An attempt is made to create atmosphere.</li> <li>The description provides a series of points rather than a sense of their being combined to make an overall picture, but some ideas are developed successfully, albeit straightforwardly. Some sentences are well sequenced.</li> </ul>   | <ul> <li>A straightforward story (or part of story) with identification of features such as character and setting.</li> <li>While opportunities for appropriate development of ideas are sometimes missed, overall structure is competent, and some features of a developed narrative are evident. Sentences are usually sequenced to narrate events clearly.</li> </ul>  |

COMPOSITION TASKS: TABLE B - STYLE AND ACCURACY

| Band 1 | 11–12 | Writing is consistent, stylistically fluent, linguistically strong and accurate; has sense of audience  Look for appropriately used ambitious words Complex sentence structures where appropriate  |  |  |
|--------|-------|--|--|--|
| Band 2 | 9–10  | Writing is mostly fluent, sometimes linguistically effective and largely accurate; may have some sense of audience  Look for signs of a developing style Some ability to express shades of meaning   |  |  |
| Band 3 | 7–8   | Writing is clear, competent (if plain) in vocabulary and grammar; errors perhaps frequent, but minor  Look for mostly correct sentence separation Occasional precision and/or interest in choice of words  |  |  |
| Band 4 | 5–6   | Writing is clear and accurate in places, and expresses general meaning in vocabulary and grammar; errors occasionally serious  Look for simple sentences Errors of sentence separation   |  |  |
| Band 5 | 3–4   | Writing is generally simple in vocabulary and grammar; errors are distracting and sometimes serious, but general meaning can always be followed  • Look for definite weaknesses in sentence structures  • Grammatical errors such as incorrect use of prepositions and tense |  |  |
| Band 6 | 1–2   | Writing is very limited in correct vocabulary and grammar; error is persistent; meaning is sometimes blurred  Look for faulty and/or rambling sentences Language insufficient to carry intended meaning  |  |  |
| Band 7 | 0     | Writing is difficult to follow because of inadequate language proficiency and error  |  |  |
